a little about us

Antonio Pacelli is a family business and was established by Tom Gavigan from County Westmeath over 40 years ago and it quickly became a world leader in Irish dance shoes.

The name Antonio Pacelli is a tribute to his parents, Anthony and Patricia. In those days all the best shoes were made in Italy and Tom wanted to convey the excellent quality of his dance shoes, so with typical Irish inventiveness he took their names and gave them an Italian twist; hence the name Antonio Pacelli!

The business is now run by his two sons, Aloysius and Adrian although Tom still welcomes and serves customers in the Antonio Pacelli shop in Wembley.

Antonio Pacelli incorporated the Hullachan brand 5 years ago and the founder and head designer at Hullachan, Craig Coussins now works in conjunction with Antonio Pacelli on new shoe designs and marketing.

With a focus on innovation and foot health, the Antonio Pacelli design team lead the way in developing shoes and pumps to meet the exacting demands of today's competitive Irish dancers who are now athletes as much as dancers.

The Hullachan range represents the latest in materials and technical innovation. For example, our latest pump, the Hullachan 4, includes state of the art padding, as well as a new design registered arch cradle to give you the highest levels of support and a beautiful arch profile.

Our website includes all the products illustrated in this catalogue as well as useful information on sizing, returns and repairs. In addition you will find plenty of interesting articles on a range of Irish dance subjects. Also don't forget to check out our Facebook page for inspiring & fun posts and special offers!

We have a dedicated Irish dance shop in Wembley, North London where you can come and view our entire range of shoes, pumps and accessories. We have over 3000 pairs in stock so you can be assured of getting the perfect pump or jig shoe!

Antonio Pacelli Poodle Socks

Antonio Pacelli has been making Irish dancing socks for over 30 years, and they remain the best selling sock worldwide. The socks are made from combed Egyptian cotton and are piece dyed, so you get the whitest and softest sock on the market.

Why is Egyptian cotton so good?

Egyptian cotton -- Egypt's climate produces the right conditions to grow the ELS (Extra Long Staple) cotton used in luxury products around the world. True Egyptian cotton produces a long fibre that aids in the production of a soft thread, which is the building block of a soft, fine and durable product.

What is combed cotton?

The combing process separates 80% of the more desirable (longer, thinner more even) fibres from the less desirable (shorter, coarser, less consistent) fibres. The combed cotton is superior in quality compared to carded cotton, as it is finer, stronger, smoother and more uniform.

- Our socks are designed specifically for Irish dancing and are woven from 80% combed Egyptian cotton with 20% nylon.
- They feel softer and stay white longer.
- Available in New Championship, Ankle and Ultralow length.

Made with combed Egyptian cotton, for a softer whiter sock

Antonio Pacelli has played an integral part in Irish dancing for over 40 years supplying Irish dance shoes and accessories to dancers around the world

Through the years Antonio Pacelli has been at the forefront of design and communication. Antonio Pacelli were the first to introduce elastic side loops and padded insoles into pumps, comfort features into jig shoes and the one and only seamless toe pump. Antonio Pacelli was also the first to create a website with an online shop, news & articles and helpful information for the dancer. With a rich past in innovations they intend to continue this tradition and are continually working with dancers on new designs.

We hope you find something you love in this catalogue. We are always happy to offer a helping hand, so if you need advice or guidance then please get in touch.
